The Gould Camp Disturbed by a Propostilen to R. duce Dividends of the M.ssouri Pacific.

The Causs Which Hastened the Return to His Not ve Land of the Great Railroad Magnate.

New York, March 20 -The Times tols morning publishes the following interesting tale:

There is a lively row in the Gould camp, not a little row but a big row. A row where cames are being called and threats are being indulged in. Well may the interested and involved persons fill the telegraph wires with urgent solicitations to Jay Gould to hurry home. It day by day it has grown hotter and hotter until now the wires in all the Gould headquarters is loaded down with the smoke of denunciations and blazes of threatenings. This was the way it came

Wall Street has been filled with reports dated back a long time, that the Mi-south Pacific's dividend was about to be materially reduced. People who pose as "insiders," have tried to pooh pooh the rumors down, but pooh poohing would not work, and the belief continually grew stronger that the reports of prospective reductions were true. Yesterday out came the annual reports of the roads in Gould's southwestern system, making it government had removed General Bou-pretty plain by their wretched showing langer at Germany's request. that reduced cividends or not, there are lots of causes for worriment among the stockholders. The Burlington and Quivey Sent More En gineers and Firemen than They N od. CHICAGO, ILL., March 20 - General Manager Stone of the Burilegton Road telegraphed his eastern agents yesterday instructing them to send no more engineers or firemen under any circumstances. The raising of the snow blockade has resulted In a rush of engineers that has surpassed anything sluce the strike. Thursday 808 crews had been engaged, and Sat urday the number had increased to 913. including those now on the way from the eastern states and Canada. The grand total is over 1000 crews. It is believed that hundreds more have been engaged, but the agents are instructed not to send them. The Central Iowa telegraphed to the "Q" for men yesterday, and arrangements will be made to supply them with the overflow.

REFUERD TO HAUL A Q CAR. DECATUR ALA, March 20 - The en-gineers on the Louisville and Nashville Reliroad at Decatur to day refused to pull a freight train to which a Q car was attached. The car was taken out and turned over to the Memphis and Charleston Ratiroad whose engineers also refused to move it. The car is now standing in the yard, and the engineers all refuse to pu'l a train to which the car is attached.

TO HANDLE O FREIGHT. Sr. Louis, Mo , March 20 -A report was in circulation among the railroad men here to-night that General Super-intendent Dickinson of the Missourl Pacific Rallway issued an order late this afternoon which provides for the candling of Chicago, Burlington and Quincy freight. The report cannot; be verified to night.

A RUMORED COMBINATION. CHICAGO, LLL, March 20 - The feature of the Burlington strike to-day was a rumored combination between engineers and firemen and 2500 switchmen and orskemen employed on the road. In quiry among the brake men and switchmen failed to anthenticate the rumor, although all admitted having heard of it and declared that its consummation would mean certain defeat to the Q company. So far as actual observation goes, change in the relative positions of the brotherhoods and the Q was to be seen to-day. The latter maintains it is pursuing the even tenor of its way, undisturbed by wars and rumors of war, on other roads, while the former ress themselves satisfied with the siton, and as confident of success as a first the strike was called.

It is a rare occurrence for a whole famlly to get married at the same time, but an incident of this kind occurred to-day, or at least licenses were issued. To-day the county clerk issued license to an old widower, named L. C. Schoolfield of this county, to marry Mrs. Mamie Mitchell. The old man was attended by two young men and a young girl of eighteen. After the license was issued, a young man stepped up to the clerk, saying:

"Well, while you're at it, you mought as well write me a license." "What name?" as ked the clerk "My name is J. R Schoolfield and I want to marry Nora Wilkinson " After the clerk was satisfied about the legality of Issuing the license he i-sued it, when the other young man came to the front. Said ne:

"Bon't shut up the book, Mister, I want one myself." "Well, sir, your name?" said the clerk.
"F. T. Rice," said the young farmer,
"and this is the girl, sir, Miss Hattle Schoolfield. The old man there will tell you it is all right." The two latter Schoolfieldslare the children of the former. They were all mar-

WACO, TEX , March 20 -A most pahetic see e took place in the County court this evening. Mr. Kirr, one of Waco's oldest and most prominent citzens, was adju ged insane and will be sent to the Terrell asylum to-morrow. It has been known by his friends that his mind has been unbalanced for some time. Of late it has become dangerous for him to be with his family, as he imagined they were going to starve him to death and he was seen to sharpen a balcuet and knife and remark that they all had better be dead than starve. Mr. Kerr was one of the leading lumber dealers of Central Texas. Business and family troubles is said to be the cause of his insanity. His hair and heavy black beard had turned in a few weeks perfectly white, and his face showed signs of an unutterable grief.
